Hello Matteo,

Sorry for the very late answer. Did not expect more answers and found it now just by accident...

I kept this plant, but not her sisters. I like this little yellow stars.

And it's flowering always as a pair or more. 😊

Until now the plant has not start to sprout yet. So I cannot offer you a sprout yet.

But if so, I will remember you. 😊

Maybe there are two or three more of this cross, still unflowered.

Did you lose MAT.2011.0057 as well?

I still have three or more plants from that cross and will keep at least one definitely.
