

Hello everybody!

Beitrag von „sourvibes“ vom 23. Mai 2019, 00:54

Hello,

my name is Fabio, I'm 41 and I'm from Italy.

I'm very much interested in Echinopsis and the related genera. Lately I started to cross-pollinate some of my botanical species for fun, but now I'm very caught.

I started to observe the forum as a guest some time ago, and finally I decided to take the step.

I fear that I will not be too active in the forum due to the language barriers ... but I hope to enjoy the ride.

Best wishes,

Fabio

Ciao Fabio!

Benvenuto dall' Austria! Divertiti nel forum.

Ci sono tanta gente parlando l'Inglese, mi dispiace mon Italiano e cosi cosi.

Da dove vieni?

Saluti Jutta

Hi Fabio,

a warm welcome to our forum!

Don't worry not writing in german. there are some members from Italy here, writing english or italian (or something in between 😊). And don't hesitate asking the questions your interested in - mostly we have some answers for you...

Cheers & kind regards,

Tim

Hey Fabio, welcome to the forum. Great to have you around. And no worries, we'll teach you all the German words you need to know. Start with Schnitzel. 😊 It's an essential German word.

As important as Schnitzel is Weissbier! *

Ciao Jutta,

io abito a Roma; here the weather permits to live off without a real greenhouse (I use a terrace covered with polycarbonate, repaired from north wind).

Il tuo italiano è decisamente migliore del mio tedesco, io non conosco una parola... No! Grazie a Pieks e Patrick ora ne conosco due : D.

Grazie a tutti,

Fabio
